Dear Willie,

We shall not take Brother and Sister Sawyer with us. We may take Emily Fellows to cook so that you can all, Cinda, May and you can be free to help get out books. But I am not sure that this would be best.

We shall study the happiness of the family, and hope that you will express your views and feelings plainly. Addie and May are two of the best girls I ever saw. They greatly improve. And they have no home only with us. They must live with us at present.

And there is an excellent spiritual old man at the Health Institute by the name of Miller. He is rich, and wants to go to California with us. We may take him along. He will not be a burden to anyone. But I am not anxious he should go.

Haste,

(Signed) James White
