If mother comes east the last of May, I shall attend many of the camp meetings, and with May to help, we can continue her life articles. In Maine we could gather many things of importance. This will give Mother and May eight weeks to compile mother's principal articles.

But if mother remains in California, I shall attend some camp meetings, but give myself mostly to my writings. I recommend therefore, to drop Life articles for a few weeks, rush the other books, etc., etc., but let mother manage this as best suits her.

Please write to Brother Andrews to send you the Three Messages direct to Oakland, California, which he is preparing for Bordeau to translate. Tell him to send one at a time, and pass them right along. Then I will prepare them for the series of English tracts after they shall pass the Signs.

Order of Tracts to be published in Signs:

1. Complete Three Thrones, or Dan. 2
2. The Judgment, or Dan. 7.
3. Andrews, Sanctuary.
4. Time of the End, when I shall _____.
5. The Messages, which you may get the first one, the first of June.

All the time I will be giving you tall slices of White Robes, or Redemption, or Way of Lffe, just as you may call it. In this I shall thoroughly canvass the Law and Sabbath.

Tell Willie I got yesterday of Bailey $1,245.80 for his mortgage. I receive $500 Dec. 22, 1874. I have his, relative to paper. I can get common print to Oakland for 10c greenbacks. It should bring 11c in gold at Oakland.

Sell 24 x 36 weight 30 lbs. for $375 in silver, $360 in gold. I will see what I can do on paper. I think I shall send none, only 24 x 36, 25 lb. and 28 lb. of common print. Send on samples and particulars.

I will write for the Signs when I can. I am well and very active, but must have a change. I do nothing, only the important matters of the cause which must be done.

I send you John's letter as a curiosity. Please return.

Haste, (Signed) James White

Well, I will close for this time, and will try and write a long letter soon. James White, President, General Conference. President, Michigan Publishing Association, and Editor Review and Herald and Signs of the Times, etc., etc., etc.
