LETTER CONCERNING PLANS FOR "SKETCHES FROM THE LIFE OF PAUL"

C O P Y

Burrough Valley, Cal.

July 10, 1888

L. C. Chadwick.

Williamsport, Penn.

Dear Bro.,--I have your letter inquiring about the republication of "Great Controversy" in four Volumes.

"Volume Four" [Great Controversy] has been revised and enlarged and will soon be issued with an enlarged page, larger type, and 700 pages. As soon as possible "Volume One" [Patriarchs and Prophets] will be published greatly enlarged. I think there will be about twice as much matter as in the first edition. It [Patriarchs and Prophets] will be issued in the same style as "Volume Four", [Great Controversy] the same size pages as D. & R., and making 700 or 800 pages. We hope this will be ready for sale sometime during the winter.

Sometime during the coming year we hope to reprint "Volume Two" and a portion of "Volume Three" in similar style, putting "Life of Christ" [Desire of Ages] complete in one book. I cannot tell how long it will be before "Life of Paul" will be incorporated in another volume covering the life of the apostles and making a connection between the life of Christ and the lives of the apostles.

Trusting you are in good health and of good courage,

I am yours truly,

Per F.

Note:- It is seen from this letter that in the summer of 1888 plans were being formed for a four volume set of subscription books, [Conflict of the Ages Series] one of which would take the place of "Sketches from the Life of Paul." W. C. White hoped "Patriarchs and Prophets" would be published during the winter of 1888-1889. It came out in 1890. During the "coming year"--1889 he hoped they could publish "Desire of Ages". It did not appear till 1898. He did not know when they would get to "Acts of the Apostles". It was finally published in 1911.--A.L.White
