Dear Miss Mount:

Thank you for the information concerning secular poetry, that there is no known reference to it in the writing of Sister White.

Is SABBATH READINGS FOR THE HOME CIRCLE the only work prepared by Sr. White that was published anonymously? How many volumes in the set? In what year or years were the volumes published? How many stories in the set?

Will you please quote the sentence or sentences from the publishers which indicate that Ellen G. White was the compiler of those volumes. Where does that notice appear, in one or more of the volumes or in an advertisement or similar notice?

Is the above statement made so as to cover all the volumes in the set unmistakably?

Sincerely yours,

If the above-mentioned set was published during the life of Eld. James White, is there any published statement from his pen concerning it?
