

In the autumn of 1855, Eld. J.N. Andrews called on me at Battle Creek, on his way to Iowa, and set before me the scriptural reasons for commencing the Sabbath at sunset. He had written a clear article on the subject which he left with me, and which appeared in the Review for Dec. 4, 1855. This article, however, before it appeared in the Review was read ~~at~~ at the Conference at Battle Creek, about that time, and the subject was discussed resulting in settling the minds of the brethren on the sunset-time, with the exception of Bro. Bates and a few others. Since that time there has been general agreement among us upon the subject. . . .

At the close of the conference at Battle Creek referred to above, the ministers and others, especially interested in the cause had a special season of prayer for the prosperity of the cause, and in that meeting Mrs. W. Had a vision, one item of which was that sunset time was correct. This settled the matter with Bro. Bates and otherw, and general harmony has since prevailed among us upon this point.
