

224
3

re HAZEN FOSS

Letter from Mary P. Foss
West Minot, Maine
April 1, 1894

Dear Sister Ellen:

. . . You asked me once for Hazen Foss's address. Did you get an answer from him? He died last summer in Haverhill, had a shock, and died in a few days. I was in hopes he would have his senses when he died, to hear what he would say. He was an infidel the last I heard of him. His life was a failure."